CARD.—To THE PUBLIC: In consequence of the accident which happened to the nachinery of the steamoon footh America, on the 7th inst. I was unable to faifilf my part of the agreement entered into on the 17th of June, 185), with Messrs. Moore. Tinkey and others, Committee of the Third Universalist Society's Sunday School, whereby the and South America was chartered for an excursion to Biddle's Gross on the 9th of July. Not knowing or the accident to the South America until too late to make arrangement with the owners of the steamer Carlaine to take the South Spiace, (as per request of the Committee,) I was compelled to send the New-Lersey as a substitute. Under the circumstances it was impossible for me to make any better arrangement; and I trust that the Co amittee and all interested in the said circumson, will consider the above explanation sufficiently satisfactory.
